Born in Glendale, California, March 17, 1990. He was admitted to the California Bar on June 3, 2016, and is licensed to practice in all California state courts, as well as in the Central and Eastern District Courts of California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. He earned his Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, in May 2015. During his time at Loyola, Christopher was a key contributor to the Loyola of Los Angeles International and Comparative Law Review, first as a Staff Editor from Fall 2013 to Spring 2014, and later as Senior Production Editor from Fall 2014 to Spring 2015. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, graduating cum laude from the University of California, San Diego, in June 2012. Christopher's practice encompasses advising and counseling employers and management on a broad spectrum of employment-related matters, as well as representing clients in employment litigation and commercial business disputes. In addition to his legal expertise, he is fluent in Armenian.
